STATE OF WASHINGTON,

v.

RANDALL C. SMITH,
Appellant.

No. 46365-2-II

STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL
GROUNDS FOR REVIEW

I, Randall C. Smith, have received and reviewed the opening brief prepared by my Attorney. Attached are the additional grounds for review that are not addressed in that brief. I understand the Court will review this Statement of Additional Grounds for Review when my appeal is considered on the merits. Further, I ask the Court to accept and consider any issues not preserved, by Trial Counsel, under RAP 2.5(a)(3).

Date: April 22, 2015

Additional Ground 1

The State alleges "Plain View" observations by Officer Tiffany which led to Applications for Search Warrants, Seizures of Rooms and the resulting Searches. (Finding of Fact IX, Conclusions of Law III- Appendix A.). This assertion is erroneous as the "Plain View" doctrine does not apply to Mr. Smiths' case; In Order for "Plain View" to apply the following requirements must be met: (1) Officers must immediately recognize evidence they see to be associated with Criminal Activity, and (2) have valid justification to be in an otherwise protected area. (citing State v. Buem, 179 Wash. 2d 195, 313 P.3d 1156 (2013); quoting State v. Hatchie, 141 Wash. 2d 390, 395, 166 P.3d 698 (2007); A "plain view search" occurs when law Enforcement officers "(1) have a valid justification to be in an otherwise protected area and (2) are immediately able to realize the evidence they see is associated with criminal activity."). The State correctly asserts that Law Enforcement responded to a call about "items that were possibly related to Financial Crimes". (Finding of Fact VII- Appendix A.). During testimony, Officer Tiffany stated that items were "confirmed suspicious", 1 VRP 75; that HE considered the belongings abnormal, 6 VRP 536; and that TPD responded to a call regarding suspicious items to investigate, 6 VRP 535. Nowhere in Officer Tiffany's testimony does he say that any items were immediately recognized as being associated with Criminal Activity, nor does he mention or assert that he was serving an Arrest Warrant on Mr. Smith. Officer Tiffany also never mentions receiving lawful Authority to enter into the Hotel Room, (See Opening Brief of Mr. Smith pg. 15-16). The Courts failure to suppress evidence obtained through illegal/unconstitutional means should be reversed.

The Court incorrectly authorized entry based on outstanding warrants that Mr. Smith had, as discussed Law Enforcement did not respond to assist with Warrant Service but to "investigate", 6 VRP 535; the Court incorrectly upheld and authorized a "pretextual entry/arrest/stop" which violates Art. 1 Sect. 7 of Washington State Constitution. (citing State v. Snapp, 153 Wn. App. 485, 219 P.3d 971 (Wash. App. Div. 2 2009), quoting State v. Myers, 150 Wash.2d 1027, 82 P.3d 242 (2004); Pretextual stops generally take the form of police stopping the driver for a minor traffic offense to investigate more serious violations -- violations for which the officer does not have probable cause.).

Additional Ground 1 (a)

As argued in Mr. Smith's Opening Brief (Pg. 15-16), Law Enforcement did not receive lawful consent to enter the Hotel Room - a Private Protected area-. Therefore the subsequent seizure of the Hotel Room(s) until able to procure Search Warrant(s), 2 VRP 88, 2 VRP 90, and 6 VRP 541, is unlawful and all evidence should have been suppressed as the subsequent search after reception of Warrant(s) does not erase the prior taint of the illegal entry & seizure (citing State v. Bean, 89 Wn.2d 467, 572 P.2d 1102 (1978)); The initial entry into the house was wrongful and the subsequently obtained search warrant was not curative of the original illegal entry.).

Additional Ground 1 (b)

Officers entered a "Private Area" in order to investigate items that were considered "suspicious" - (1 VRP 75; 5 VRP 446-447; 6 VRP 535-537). Officer Tiffany was asking "investigate questions" (2 VRP 77) and claims no search until after warrant(s) were received (2 VRP 90). However, without required "Authority of Law" even gaining visual access to a Protected Area without permission is a violation of privacy. (Citing United States v. Pope, 686 F.3d 1078 (9th Cir. 2012), quoting United States v. Windsor, 846 F.2d 1569 (9th Cir. 1988); police effected a search when they gained visual entry into a Hotel Room through a door that was opened at their command.)

Additional Ground 2

Mr. Smith was convicted of Unlawful Possession of Firearm in the First Degree. Mr. Smith's Trial counsel addressed issues with Mr. Smith being notified of his inability to possess a Firearm (3 VRP 163-166). The Court states "It may not say anything on the Judgement and Sentence" (3 VRP 166). Without proof that Mr. Smith was notified either in writing or orally as mandated by RCW 9A.04.047(1), this conviction cannot stand and must be reversed. (citing State v. Breitung, 173 Wn.2d at 402, 267 P.3d 1012 (2012); "Because the record is silent on oral notification, the assumption is no such notice was given." Absent that notice, he is entitled to reversal of the Unlawful Possession of Firearms conviction.).

Additional Ground 3

Mr. Smith was convicted of Leading Organized Crime. This charge requires predicate acts of Criminal Profiteering, RCW 9A.82.010(12). During testimony of Sarah Stetson-Hayden (7 VRP 595-671 & 8 VRP 694-703), Alissa Turner (6 VRP 488-508) and Kristine Carlson (5 VRP 389-425) there was talk about shopping but no specific acts that were either confirmed, corroborated or proven true that would prove the criminal profiteering element of Leading Organized Crime; This conviction must be reversed. (Citing State v. Barnes, 85 Wash. App. 638, 932 P.2d 669 (1997); Conviction for Leading Organized crime requires that defendant led three persons and that defendant intended to commit three acts of criminal profiteering.....).

Additional Ground 4

Mr. Smith was convicted of 18 counts of Identity Theft in the 2nd Degree, three of the alleged victims:

A. Wilkins- Count ~~XIV~~ - Appendix B @ 7

D. Schardt- Count ~~XXIV~~ - Appendix B @ 12

E. Swanson- Count ~~XI~~ - Appendix B @ 5

failed to testify. Susan Swanson testified (4 VRP 304) on behalf of her mother (E. Swanson), who is still alive, the State produced no evidence of why E. Swanson was unavailable to testify or that Susan Swanson had authority to speak for her mother. These convictions violate Mr. Smith's U.S.C.A. 6th Amendment as well as RCWA Const. 1 § 22 "To meet the witnesses against him face-to-face". Therefore these convictions must be reversed.

Additional Ground 5

Mr. Smith was convicted of 18 counts of Identity Theft in the 2nd Degree, Unlawful Possession of a Personal Identification Device and Unlawful Possession of Payment Instruments. Each of the mentioned charges requires knowledge, possession and intent to be proven beyond a reasonable doubt, in order to convict. In the testimony of Sarah Stetson-Hayden (7 VRP 595-671 & 8 VRP 694-703), Alissa Turner (6 VRP 488-508) and Kristine Carlson (5 VRP 389-425) none of them placed Mr. Smith in possession of the mentioned items nor was there any testimony regarding intent to defraud with these items. Detective Schieferdecker testified that the Hotel Room(s) was in the name of Sarah Stetson-Hayden (5 VRP 373), not Mr. Smith's. Further the "Return of Officer" signed by Officer Tiffany (Appendix C) indicates that Sarah Stetson-Hayden was in possession of all items recovered during search. (Judge Chuschoff referred to Warrant to support probable cause. (2 VRP 115) yet didn't mention this page with regards to possession.). (quoting State v. Vasquez, 178 Wash. 2d 1, 309 P.3d 318 (2013); For crimes where possession and intent are elements of the crime, Washington courts do not permit inferences based on naked possession. Rather, this court and the Court of Appeals have consistently required the State prove intent beyond a reasonable doubt. Just as mere possession of a controlled substance does not support an inference of an intent to deliver or manufacture, neither does mere possession of a forged identification card support an inference of an intent to injure or defraud.). In the interest of justice reversal and remand is necessary.

Additional Ground 6

Through Counsel, Mr. Smith requested Judge to recuse himself based on previous hearings related to this case, when Judge Chushcoff was Presiding Judge in CDPJ and made a few rulings in regards to this case; Mr. Smith also filed a Grievance against Judge Chushcoff PRIOR to his assignment as Trial Judge (1 VRP 5-6). Mr. Smith then attempted to file an "Affidavit of Prejudice" which Judge Chushcoff refused to accept stating he had no "actual" prejudice (2 VRP 119-120). (citing: State v. Davis, 175 Wash. 2d 287, 290 P.3d 43; quoting, Sherman v. State, 128 Wash. 2d 164, 205, 905 P.2d 355 (1995); In determining whether recusal is warranted, actual prejudice need not be proved; a "mere suspicion of impartiality" may be enough to warrant recusal.). Mr. Smith attempted to file Discretionary Review (2 VRP 119-120), Judge refused to sign and order into record necessary documents. At later date court accepted Discretionary Review Motion stating "It's a little late now". (3 VRP 816-817.). (citing: Tatham v. Rogers, 170 Wn. App. 76, 283 P.3d 583 (2012), Like the protections of due process, Washington's appearance of fairness doctrine seeks to prevent the problem of a biased or potentially interested judge. quoting: State v. Carter, 77 Wash. App. 8, 12, 888 P.2d 1230 (1995), (Under this doctrine, evidence of a judges actual bias is not required, it is enough to present evidence of a Judges actual or potential bias. quoting: Post, 118 Wash. 2d at 619 n. 9, 826 P.2d 172, 837 P.2d 599; The CJC recognizes that where a trial judges decisions are tainted by even a mere suspicion of partiality, the effect on the public confidence in our judicial system can be debilitating.).

Additional Ground 7

Mr. Smith received Ineffective Assistance of Counsel. Trial Counsel failed to bring Motion to Suppress based on violation of W.S.C.A Art 1, Section 7, which prohibits illegal search and seizure. There was no strategic reason for not addressing issues of automatic standing where possession is an essential element of majority of Mr. Smiths' crimes. There is no strategic reason for not objecting to convictions of which the "victim(s)" did not testify. There is no strategic reason for not arguing that the State did not prove the elements of charged crimes beyond a reasonable doubt. There is no strategic reason for bringing arguments without supporting authorities, 3 VRP 163-166. There is no strategic reason for not knowing Identity Theft statutes, Mr. Underwood made a argument in his Closing Argument that a business is not a person for the purpose of Identity Theft (8 VRP 786) this resulted in new jury instructions being issued (8 VRP 799-801). Trial Counsel was unprepared in his arguments and his lack of knowledge in the areas of which defending, Mr. Smith resulted in an unfair Trial resulting in multiple convictions primarily based upon the use of tainted evidence that was never put into Mr. Smiths' possession. (Citing: State v. Hamilton, 179 Wn. App. 870, 320 P.3d 142; No conceivable strategic reason for counsel to have failed to move to suppress based on unlawful search of purse.) (Citing: State v. Edwards, 171 Wn. App. 379, 294 P.3d 708 (2012); To satisfy the prejudice prong, the defendant must show the outcome of the proceedings would have differed but for counsels deficient performance.).

Additional Ground 8

Mr. Smith cites multiple errors in his SAG and Opening Brief. All of the assigned errors are accompanied with decisions that reversed those issues. Mr. Smith is also now citing the cumulative error doctrine, asserting that had issues been appropriately addressed Mr. Smith would've received a fair trial. Since Mr. Smith did not receive a fair trial in the interest of justice all charges / convictions require reversal. (citing: State v. Hodges, 118 Wn. App. 668, 673-74, 77 P.3d 375 (2003), review denied, 151 Wn.2d 1031, 94 P.3d 960 (2004); The cumulative error doctrine applies when several errors occurred, denying the defendant a fair trial, even though no single error warrants reversal.). (citing: State v. Garcia, 177 Wn. App. 769, 313 P.3d 422 (2013); Even where several errors standing alone do not warrant reversal, the cumulative error doctrine requires reversal when the combined effect of the errors denied the defendant a fair trial.).

SUPERIOR COURT OF WASHINGTON FOR PIERCE COUNTY

STATE OF WASHINGTON,

Plaintiff,

CAUSE NO. 12-1-04415-7

vs.

RANDALL CHRISTOPHER SMITH,

FINDINGS OF FACT AND
CONCLUSIONS OF LAW FOR CrR 3.6
HEARING

Defendant.

THIS MATTER having come on before the Honorable Bryan Chushcoff, judge of the above entitled court, for a CrR 3.6 motion on the 5th day of May, 2014, the defendant having been present and represented by attorney Kent Underwood, and the State being represented by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Melody Crick, and the court having considered all the evidence, heard testimony and the arguments of counsel and being duly advised in all matters, the Court makes the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

FINDINGS OF FACT

I.

That on November 25, 2012, bail bond recovery agents David Chadwick and Joseph Kaufman had received information that defendant, Randall Smith, was staying at the La Quinta hotel in Tacoma. The bail bond recovery agents had a contract from A Affordable Bail Bonds to arrest defendant after he failed to appear for a King County case. David Chadwick testified his practice is to confirm the warrant. The contract was admitted at the CrR 3.6 hearing.

II.

The bail bond recovery agents were licensed and followed procedures for entering the hotel. They called the Tacoma Police Department to let them know they were going in to obtain defendant, showed defendant's picture to the front desk, confirmed he was in the hotel and then entered room 612 with a pass key in order to obtain defendant. Defendant was in room 612 and was detained by the recovery agents. Co-defendant Sarah Stetson-Hayden was also in the room.

III.

The bail bond recovery agents observed large amount of credit cards, computers, shopping bags and other items filling the room. All of the items the bail recovery agents observed were in plain view. Suspecting criminal activity, the bail recovery agents called Tacoma Police Department and stayed at the scene until they arrived a few minutes later. The bail recovery agents were only at the hotel to arrest the defendant on his outstanding warrant. They do not investigate crime.

IV.

Defendant obtained the rooms fraudulently. Defendant was not registered in the room under his real name. Defendant had an identification card, that Officer Tiffany observed was obviously fake, in the name of Marvin Crotto. Defendant had used that identification to rent the room. In addition, defendant had used a stolen credit card to rent the room. The true owner of the credit card was Gordon Stone.

V.

Defense counsel conceded at the CrR 3.6 hearing that the entry into room 612 by the bail recovery agents was lawful. There was no dispute that there was a valid warrant for defendant's arrest.

VI.

That on November 25, 2012, Tacoma Police Officer Jared Tiffany was working in his official capacity. Officer Tiffany was dispatched to the LaQuinta Inn at 1425 E. 27th St. in Tacoma, WA at about 8:30pm. Dispatch indicated that bail recovery agents had discovered items in a hotel room that were possibly related to financial crimes.

VII.

Officer Tiffany spoke to one of the bail recovery agents, Joseph Kauffman, who told the officer what he had observed. Officer Tiffany then contacted Sgt. Michael Lim who told him to wait for Officer Phillip Hoschouer. Once Hoschouer arrived the officers went to room 612 of the La Quinta.

VIII.

When the officers entered the room, defendant was secured in handcuffs and was being guarded by another bail recovery agent, David Chadwick. Co-defendant Sarah Stetson-Hayden was sitting on the bed.

IX.

Officers Tiffany and Hoschouer both observed a large amount of items in the hotel room. There were bins, computers, shopping bags, stacks of checks, mail, office supplies, and a box on the bed that contained ~~hundreds of~~ ^{numerous} credit cards. All of the items noted by the officers were in plain view. Officer Tiffany noted that one part of the room, with the electronics, appeared to be organized while the other part did not.

X.

1 Officer Tiffany interviewed defendant. After advising defendant of his Miranda rights,
2 defendant answered questions including the fact that he and his girlfriend Sarah had checked into
3 the hotel earlier in the week and had rented five rooms. He gave no reason why he had rented
4 that many rooms but did say that he had let several of his friends stay in the other rooms.
5 Defendant refused to provide the room numbers, stating "You can find it." Defendant said that
6 he and Sarah had stayed in room 612 since they checked in. The night before, they decided to do
7 a room switch with their friend Trina and had started to move some of their belongings to room
8 215 but still had some of their things in room 612. Officer Tiffany observed that defendant was 9 arrogant and argumentative during the entire contact.
10

XI.

12 Officer Hoschouer interviewed Sarah Stetson-Hayden. Stetson-Hayden's statements
13 were included in the affidavit for search warrant which defense counsel attached to his brief and 14 which the Court took notice of at the CrR 3.6 hearing. Stetson-Hayden admitted that there was 15 stolen merchandise in the room and that defendant would forge checks and have his friends cash
16 the checks.
17

XII.

18
19 The officers did not search the rooms, including room 612, until after search warrants
20 were obtained. As soon as the officers saw what was in the rooms, defendant and Stetson-
21 Hayden were removed and the room was secured. Officer Tiffany wrote the search warrants and 22 had them signed by a judge. The search of the rooms only commenced after the search warrants
23 were obtained.

XIII.

Defendant himself claimed ownership of the two vehicles in the LaQuinta hotel parking lot. Officer Luke Wallin transported defendant to jail. While defendant was in Officer Wallin's car, defendant observed his two vehicles being towed. Defendant asked why his vehicles were being impounded and Officer Wallin told him they were being impounded pending a search warrant. Defendant stated that he purchased both vehicles off Craigslist a couple of weeks earlier. He said he paid $4,500 for the 2012 Chrysler and $3,500 for the 2102 Subaru and did not think that there was anything odd about the purchase prices. Officer Wallin advised they were registered to a rental company and defendant still insisted the vehicles were his.

XIV.

That the State's witnesses that testified at the CrR 3.6 hearing are credible.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

I.

That the Court finds that the bail bond recovery agents lawfully entered hotel room 612 that defendant had fraudulently rented. The bail bond recovery agents properly called the police when they discovered evidence of criminal activity.

II.

That the Court finds that the officers lawfully entered hotel room 612 that defendant had fraudulently rented. The officers spoke with the reporting party, one of the bail bond recovery agents, prior to entering the room. Defendant was already under arrest when the officers entered the room. The valid arrest warrant for the defendant provided Officer Tiffany and Officer Hoshouer with an independent basis to enter the hotel room. The officers were not required to independently confirm the warrant prior to entering the hotel room.

III.

1 The Court finds that the officers properly applied for and obtained search warrants. Once
 2 they were in room 612, the officers noticed a large amount of items that indicated there was
 3 criminal ^{activity} ~~actively~~ taking place. Everything the officers observed was in plain view. They also BEL
 4 obtained statements from the defendant and Sarah Stetson-Hayden. The combined total of the 5 officers' observations and the statements resulted in ~~strong~~ probable cause and a basis for the BEL
 6 search warrants. There was a basis for a search warrant for each of the five hotel rooms and the 7 two cars.

9 IV.

10 The Court finds that all warrants in this case are valid and that the officers did not search
 11 until the search warrants were obtained.
 12

13 V.

14 The Court finds that the evidence obtained from the search warrants issued in this case is 15 admissible and the motion to suppress is denied.
